
Michael Ronen

Investment Banking
New York

Michael is co-chief operating officer of the Global Technology, Media and Telecom Group and is responsible for the Media and Telecom mergers and acquisitions business in the Americas. He also leads the Automotive Technology effort for the Global Technology Group and is a member of the Investment Banking Americas Operating Committee. He joined Goldman Sachs in 1998 as an associate in the Communications, Media and Entertainment Group. Michael later became the business unit manager for that group and subsequently joined the Merger Leadership Group to work with many of the firm's Media, Telecom and Technology clients. From 2008 to 2010, he was also responsible for developing the firm's mergers and acquisitions-related derivatives business within the Americas Financing Group. Michael was named managing director in 2006 and partner in 2012.

Prior to joining the firm, Michael served in the Israeli Air Force Intelligence Corps and later practiced law as an attorney in Israel, specializing in bankruptcies and financial restructurings.

Michael earned an LLB (JD) from Tel Aviv University in 1994 and an MBA, with distinction, from the Stern School of Business at NYU in 1998.
