
Jernej Omahen

Global Investment Research
London

Jernej is head of the European Financial Institutions Group, which includes European banks, insurance, real estate and diversified financial companies, within Global Investment Research. He has overall coverage responsibility for European banks, with a particular focus on investment banks and Spanish banks. Previously, Jernej was co-head of the European banks research team. Prior to that, he had primary coverage responsibility for various groups of European banks, including German, Italian, Austrian, Swiss, Russian and CEE banks. Jernej joined Goldman Sachs in 2001 as a financial analyst. He was named managing director in 2009 and partner in 2014.

Jernej earned a degree in economics from the University of Ljubljana in 2000.