
Kathryn A. Koch

Investment Management
New York

Katie is global head of client portfolio management and business strategy for Goldman Sachs Asset Management (GSAM) Fundamental Equity. In this role, she leads our global team of client portfolio managers in the development and communication of our investment and market views. Katie is a member of the GSAM Client Experience Group.

Previously, Katie worked in GSAM's London office, where she has held several leadership positions over the last 10 years. Most recently, Katie was head of the Global Portfolio Solutions (GPS) group for EMEA and Asia Pacific Ex-Japan and a member of the GPS Investment Committee. The GPS group provides multi-asset class products and solutions for institutional and individual investors.

Before that, Katie was a senior portfolio strategist and chief of staff for GSAM's Office of the Chairman. Katie joined Goldman Sachs as an analyst in 2002 and was named managing director in 2011.

Katie serves on the Securities Industry Institute Board of Trustees. In 2015, she was honored as a Young Global Leader by the World Economic Forum. She has also been named by Financial News as a Rising Star in Asset Management. Additionally, Katie has contributed significantly to the firm's research efforts on the economic enfranchisement of women in the developing world.

Katie earned a BA, magna cum laude, in English and Economics from the University of Notre Dame in 2002.
